Of Miners to be Held at Wilkesbarre Next Monday To Decide Question of Returning to Work--No Work for Many.

Tamaqua, Pa., Oct. 17.—All eyes are turned toward next Monday, when the mine workers will decide the question of returning to work. It is feared here by many in a position to know the sentiment of the Panther Creek valley that the delegates will go instructed to reject the operators' proposition. They don't want to get to work without some substantial guarantee at the outset. The unions here will elect their delegates this afternoon.

The house of Foreman Dolbin, the Anchor washery at Furnace Hill, was blown up by dynamite last night. No one was injured, but the house was badly damaged.

General Schall said this morning that he thought the troops would remain in the field at least two weeks after the strike was declared off for the reason that repeated feuds would occur between union and nonunion men which would undoubtedly need the assistance of troops.

NO WORK FOR MANY.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 17.—There will be no work for many of the strikers when the resumption is officially ordered. The men who had places in the mines before the strike will have to be content with what the operators give. Old engineers who have been in the service of the companies for many years and went on a strike will find new men in their places and many will not be taken back.

It will be the same way with the firemen and the pump runners. Of the miners' laborers, the company hands, there are sufficient in the region now to fill the places that are to be filled. But there are hurrying back from the soft coal field and elsewhere many thousands of the strikers who want away to get work. There is not room for all. There are in the mines some four thousand engineers, firemen and pump runners, and 13,000 other workers, nonunion men. The operators will retain these, allowing them to keep the good places they now have, and promising them protection from any trouble which might occur owing to friction with the union workers. The total number of engineers, firemen and pumpmen required at the mines is about 7,000, so that only 3,000 of the 7,000 strikers will get places.

MINING JOURNAL'S OPINION.

New York, Oct. 17.—The Engineering and Mining Journal, of which E. W. Parker, the mining expert on the strike arbitration board is editor, says today:

"The board of arbitrators appointed by President Roosevelt to take up all the issues in controversy between the striking anthracite miners and their employers, is not likely to be altogether satisfactory to the latter, though organized labor will certainly get a fair show from it. We have no wish to criticize the President since his choice is doubtless as good as one as would be made by any man in his position in the middle of all the political wire-pulling that has been the feature of this strike for several weeks.

"It is our opinion that the board will act fearlessly, showing favor to neither operators nor to the United Mine Workers. Issues far greater than the rate to be paid for mining a particular coal seam are involved—issues that are of national importance and are bound to call for legislation within a few years. The whole question of rights of labor organizations, their duties and responsibilities have been involved in the present strike and we believe that the board by acting fearlessly and in insisting that its report be not edited to suit political exigencies can do a permanent service to the nation—a service that will insure to its members lasting fame."

This is signed by F. Hobart, Mr. Parker's associate editor.

DELEGATES CHOSEN.

Mount Carmel, Pa., Oct. 17.—Out of 20 meetings of locals held here by the miners today when delegates were chosen to attend the Wilkesbarre convention next week, a majority of the latter were instructed to follow the advice of Mitchell and the district officers.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 17.—It is expected by the union leaders that the thousands of striking miners will return to work about next Thursday.

A call has been issued for a delegate convention of miners in this city to meet at 10 o'clock Monday. The members of the Executive Board and President Mitchell recommend to the convention the acceptance of the arbitration plan.

It is believed that the convention will follow the advice of President Mitchell.

It is expected that the convention will last two days, and that there will be an interval of one day from the time the convention adjourns until the time set for the men to go back to the mines. If the convention should be in session on Wednesday it is probable resumption would not take place until Friday.

It is expected that some objections will be raised on the floor of the convention, but the officers are confident that the opposition will disappear when President Mitchell explains all the features of the modified proposition to the delegates.

The operators are making every effort to have the mines ready for work, and by the last of the week anthracite will fairly pour from them.

It is estimated that more than 200 of the 350 collieries will be in operation by the end of next week and will produce enough coal to relieve the situation.

An authority in coal mining said that the coal companies as a result of the strike, are 30,000,000 of tons behind.

The fact that there are only about 10,000 nonunion men at work and that

CONVENTION

Of Ninth District Woman's Relief Corps Including Licking County Begins.

Columbus, O., Oct. 17.—The annual convention of the Ninth district, Woman's Relief Corps, comprising the counties of Franklin, Delaware, Licking, Fairfield, Ross, Pickaway and Madison, was held in this city today, beginning at 8:30 o'clock, and continuing for two days.

Miss Sadie Chapman, past president of Beers corps, Columbus is presiding. The other officers are: Senior vice president, Nellie Sears, Circleville; junior vice president, Susie Todhunter, Lancaster; secretary, Lana Shoemaker, Columbus; assistant secretary, Laura Whipp, Columbus; treasurer, Rosa Francis, Columbus; assistant treasurer, Emma Brown, Carroll; chaplain, Rachel A. Kirk, Columbus; conductor, Mrs. Osborne, Westerville; assistant conductor, Hattie Judson, Dublin; guard, Alvira Bowers, Plain City; assistant guard, Mary Outcall, Basli; color guard No. 1, Millie Weber, Columbus; No. 2, Theresa Young, Columbus; No. 3, Mrs. Bendeman, Reynoldsburg; No. 4, Mary Coleman, Delaware; musician, Sarah Dunn, Columbus.

A number of committees will be appointed, the chairman of which are as follows: President's report, Jennie Heller, Delaware; resolutions, Martha Sharp, Westerville; press, Mattie Fipplin, Columbus; courtesies, Maria Heckler, Columbus; credentials, Mattie Lear, Columbus. The other members of the committees will be from other corps in the district.

A visit is today expected from Department Commander Weber and staff of the Grand Army, and it is thought the following present and past department officers of the corps will be in attendance: President, Ella Applebaugh, Wooster; instituting and installing officer, Jennie McLaughlin, Mansfield; chaplain, Vina Logan, Columbus; past senior vice president, Mary P. Scott, Mt. Vernon; past president, Anna E. Howe, Toledo. Reports will be received from Mrs. Julia Weadon, Columbus, delegate to the national convention, and Emma Nichols, Chillicothe, assistant patriotic instructor.

The report of the president will show about 18 corps in the Ninth district, with about 728 members, and that the order is in fine condition.

FIRST WOMAN

Kansas City Church Has Ever Had as Pastor—Miss Andrews Accepts the Call.

Hamilton, O., Oct. 17.—Miss Mary Andrews of this city, who has accepted a call to the pastorate of the influential First Universalist church of Kansas City, succeeds the Rev. Luther P. McAdenney, and will be the first woman pastor the Kansas City church has ever had. Miss Andrews, while visiting Kansas City last June, chanced to speak at the First Universalist church at one of the minor meetings. The impression that she left was so agreeable that she was unanimously called to the church pastorate when it became vacant. Miss Andrews is not yet a regularly ordained minister, but her ordination will take place before she leaves for Kansas City on November 10.

This talented girl pastor is 31 years old. She was graduated from the Hamilton High school in 1899, and spent the following four years in organizing young people's societies of the Universalist church in Ohio. She spent four years at Buchtel college, Akron, and after her graduation filled the pulpit of the Hamilton Universalist church as a supply for two years. Since 1900 she has studied sociology and psychology at the University of Chicago.

Miss Andrews is the daughter of former Sheriff Robert N. Andrews of Butler county.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Secretary of the Treasury Shaw today announced the purchase of five million dollars of four per cent bonds at 138 flat. He also announced his willingness to purchase four per cent bonds at 137 3/4 and interest to date that may be offered on the 17th and 18th inst. or to the close of business Monday, October 20.

FEW MINUTES

Might Have Saved this Institution, Which Made an Assignment this Morning.

New York, Oct. 17.—Gilman, Son & Company, one of the oldest private banking concerns in New York, followed the suspension of payment they made yesterday afternoon with an assignment this morning to Bainbridge Colby. The liabilities are reported to be about $250,000. Fifteen minutes might have saved the Gilman concern yesterday. The suspension of payment was due primarily to the fact that the company's checks were thrown out by the Western National Bank where the Gilmans had an account. Fifteen minutes before the close of business the checks were protested and Gilman suspended payment. The Gilman banking concern was founded in 1860.

OUSTED

From Their Own Country, Boers Will Form an American Colony in Missouri.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—A Boer colony of 300 families will be established at some point on the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad, probably Monnett, Mo., about 60 miles southwest of St. Louis.

Rev. Otto De Thompson, a field colonel in the Boer army, who was accused by the British of firing on a Red Cross train, is here looking after the interests of his exiled countrymen. He will be joined shortly by Dr. Reitz, secretary of the Transvaal Republic, who is now in Washington, conferring with officials of the State Department.

"My mission," said Dr. De Thompson, "is to look over the ground and then establish a church, as the Boers who are very devout, naturally settle where there is a church. We expected to return to South Africa, but Foreign Secretary Chamberlain has made that step impossible, and we intend now to seek a haven in this state. Monnett will probably be a suitable town for us."

Four New Masons.

Kokomo, Ind., Oct. 17.—Last night in the Masonic lodge at Russiaville, Andrew Wyrick, aged 89, and his three sons, Cecil, Otto and Jephtha, aged 67, 64 and 62 respectively were given the degree of Master Mason. The event was celebrated with a royal banquet. Nothing like it has ever occurred in Indiana Masonry. The combined ages of the father and three sons 282 years.

DYING

Are Fief and Wife as the Result of an Explosion of a Lamp Today at New York.

New York, Oct. 17.—James Fief, a truckman, and his wife, Emma, are lying in Lucy hospital from burns received from a lamp which exploded in their home this morning. Fief was sitting by the table when the lamp exploded, covering him with a mass of blazing oil. Mrs. Fief attempted to save her husband and in doing so her night robe was ignited. Her cries brought assistance and the flames were extinguished.

CRIME

Man Has Just Been Convicted of a Murder Committed Thirty-One Years Ago.

Evergreen, Ala., Oct. 17.—In the circuit court Albert Brown, colored, has been found guilty of killing Levy Brown, in this town, in 1871, and sentenced to prison for life. The accused is 66 years old.

Although it is now 36 years since he committed the crime, when he faced the court they were three eye-witnesses to the killing, who were prepared to swear that he inflicted the fatal knife wound.

Brown declared he was not present when the killing was done, but had no witness to support his statement. The jury returned a verdict of guilty with imprisonment for life.

CONSPIRACY

To Buy Up Lawmakers Charged by Man Who Harangued Crowd in Wall Street.

New York, Oct. 17.—Standing on the steps of the Subtreasury, in Wall street, and shaking his fist angrily at the office of Mr. Morgan, directly opposite, Lucius E. Whitton, manager of the Whiton Machine company, New London, Conn., harangued a crowd of several hundred persons.

He read a protest what he termed was a conspiracy in Wall street to buy up the legislature and judicial machinery of the State of Connecticut in the interest of a huge speculative corner.

As he began to read the protest, of which he said 8,000 would be printed and circulated in the financial district, the crowd began to gather.

In a loud voice he read his protest, which ran:

"Gentlemen:—I am an American citizen—a native and resident of Connecticut.

"I come here to protest against a great speculative plot to buy and sell my native state. I believe that inflated financial interests centered in this street have tried to buy the legislative, executive and perhaps the judicial machinery of Connecticut, in order that this machinery may be used to promote schemes of speculation, and I fear that some Connecticut politicians have been willing to sell, or, at least to rent, that machinery for shares in a great speculative conspiracy.

"May the example of Washington inspire us to truth and patriotism in all our business affairs. Let us not lose sight of public honor in the pursuit of private wealth."

Upon the conclusion of his speech he withdrew, amid jeers and catcalls, mingled with laughter. Then he pulled some pamphlets from his pocket and tossed them to the crowd. One of the pamphlets was denunciatory of J. Pierpont Morgan, all the coal operators and the politicians who tried to bring about a settlement of the coal strike.

METHODISM

Thrives in South America—Bishop McCabe Has Returned from a Long Trip.

New York, Oct. 17.—Bishop McCabe of the Methodist church has returned to this country after being absent from the United States for 11 months during which he has visited the missions of his church in South America, Germany, Switzerland and Denmark.

His trip to Europe was largely to enable Bishop Vincent who has charge of the missions on L-at continent to return to the United States on business connected with the church.

While in South America, Bishop McCabe says he made some interesting discoveries. At Concepcion, Chili, a city of 51,000 inhabitants, he found two large boarding and day schools, one for boys and the other for girls, with several hundred students and a large corps of teachers. The schools are so prosperous financially that all expenses are paid from tuitions, and there is a profit to be used for the support of native preachers.

In Ecuador, the government has called upon the Methodists to furnish teachers for a whole system of new national Normal schools to revolutionize and generalize education. Teachers for this purpose have been transferred from Chili and others reported from the United States to fill the vacancies in the latter country.

The government has paid all the transportation expenses of all the teachers. The bishop found that the desire for education in the South American countries, which is steadily increasing, gives the missionaries unprecedented opportunities for reaching and influencing the masses of the people.

Cleveland Robbery.

Cleveland, Oct. 17.—The store of Franz Banke, 254 Euclid avenue was entered last night and the robbers secured $2,000 worth of rare furs.

Later investigation shows that the loss of Banke will exceed $4,000.

ST. VINCENT'S VOLCANO

Terrible Soufriere on Another Tear--Sand Storm Lasts an Hour, Causing Darkness in the Barbados Islands.

Kingston, Island of St. Vincent, Oct. 17.—The eruptions from the volcano of La Soufriere continue and are causing great alarm. Last night the volcano was again in violent eruption and sand and ashes fell over the entire island. An electrical display accompanied the eruptions. Communication with Georgetown has been cut off and fears for the safety of the town are entertained. Advances from Martinique report that Mount Pelee is again active. Details are lacking.

Kingstown, St. Vincent, Oct. 17.—A terrific eruption of the Soufriere volcano commenced Wednesday night.

During the preceding day earth tremors, apparently too slight to be considered important, were experienced in the central and northern parts of the island.

At 8 p. m. there were indubitable indications of an eruption. Rumbling noises were heard, they increased until 9 o'clock when the roaring volcano belched forth its deadly contents. This eruption was followed by a brief lull.

Then, from 10 o'clock until 4 o'clock yesterday morning the upheaval continued. The outbreak was accompanied by an incessant and confused cannonading. There were incandescent clouds and sparkling matter ejected. After 4 o'clock the disturbance gradually subsided, but the noise of the boiling caldron is still audible in the districts near the volcano.

Both craters of the Soufriere were apparently active. They have been steaming all day long. Sand fell heavily everywhere from 1:30 until past 2 a. m. At southern points the sand is half an inch deep. The path gradually increased towards the volcano where there were showers of large stones, pebbles and cinders.

Kingstown and other southern points of the island have not been damaged. Reports from the windward district are awaited.

This eruption caused darkness at Bridgetown, island of Barbadoes, at 10 o'clock a. m. yesterday. There was a fall of volcanic dust there.

The sand ejected during this eruption has stronger sulphurous odor than any previously thrown out, and one superficial square foot of it weighs exactly one pound.

MIXING OF ORDERS

Cause Frightful Collision in Which Over a Score are Badly Hurt This Noon--Two People Killed at Ironton.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 17.—The mixing of orders today caused a collision between a freight and passenger train on the Creston branch of the Burlington, five miles north of this city at 11 o'clock today. Twenty people are known to have been injured, five probably fatally. Owing to the location of the wreck, details are lacking.

Ironton, O., Oct. 17.—Charles Davidson and Henry Geswine were instantly killed and Frank Geswine was seriously hurt this morning by west-bound Norfolk & Western passenger train. The three men were working on the track in a row about five feet apart. Davidson was struck first and instantly killed. His body was hurled against Frank Geswine who is badly injured. Henry Geswine was also instantly killed.

YOUNG MAN KILLS HIS BABY AND MURDERS WIFE'S PARENTS

He Turned Pistol Upon Himself and Regrets That Attempted Suicide Failed--Michigan Man Angered at Wife's Suit For Divorce.

Mt. Pleasant, Mich., October 17.—As the bloody sequel of a divorce suit, Archie Woodin, 43 years old, is under arrest here charged with a triple murder, and this community is shocked by a bloody tragedy in which Mrs. Woodin's parents and the prisoner's eight teen months old daughter were shot and killed. Woodin was overpowered just as he was about to turn the weapon upon himself. He visited the court house and looked over the papers in a divorce suit which his wife instituted a few days ago.

From there he went directly to Isbell's hardware store where he purchased a revolver. There was no interruption in his career of crime from the moment his hands let go of the legal papers in the court house until his victims lay dead in two farm houses six miles apart.

Having secured the weapon he first rode his wheel to the Gulick farm, Mr. and Mrs. Gulick being the first victims. Mr. Gulick was shot twice, once above the heart and once in the right side, and was instantly killed. Woodin then turned upon his mother-in-law, who was sitting in a rocking chair and shot her in the throat. She ran into the kitchen and fell upon her back. Woodin followed and emptied three chambers of his revolver into her breast, killing her.

A 14 year old daughter of Gulick came in at the sound of the first shots and seeing the blood on her mother's neck, ran to the neighbors and gave the alarm. While running down the road she heard the last three shots.

The murderer then dashed madly to his mother's home, six miles away. He rode his wheel for one mile, then tearing off his coat and throwing it with his wheel into a fence corner, ran a mile and a half through the fields. He made the last four miles on a borrowed horse.

Passing the time of day with a group of apple pickers on his mother's farm, he entered the house as though nothing had happened and picking up his little girl carried her into an empty room. In a moment a shot rang out. Woodin was overpowered just as he had turned the revolver upon himself and had inflicted a wound that is not expected to prove fatal.

The young mother, until September 27, had the baby with her at the farm of Eli Ferris, where she obtained employment, but the father then took it to his mother on the promise that he would soon return it.

Woodin's wife was Miss Anna M. Gulick, and they were married March 25, 1900. Woodin was a soldier in the Cuban war. At the jail he refused to talk, except to express regret that he had failed to kill himself. He was laboring under the impression that his wife's parents had caused the divorce proceedings, though his wife's bill of came in at the sound of the first shots

Facts That Speak for Themselves.

In every criminal case the suit is brought by the State of Ohio, which is the plaintiff. If the case fails and no conviction results the costs are paid out of the county treasury. If the State wins and a conviction results the costs are paid out of the State treasury. In this way the tax payer is interested in the result of every criminal law suit. The tax payer is not only interested in the successful prosecution of criminals, so that none shall escape who deserve punishment, but he is interested in having the State treasury pay the costs instead of the county treasury. And this is why the tax payer is doubly interested in having a competent, experienced lawyer in the office of Prosecuting Attorney. He wants a lawyer whom he would employ himself if he had an important case in court. The extensive business of James R. Fitzgibbon as a lawyer, the large number of cases he has in the courts, and the numerous clients he has in this city and all parts of Licking county, prove him to be just such a Prosecuting Attorney as the public interest needs in the office. Since Prosecuting Attorney Fitzgibbon has been in office every case he has tried has resulted in a conviction and a verdict for the State. These are facts that speak for themselves.

Mr. Kniseley is thoroughly equipped and qualified for the office and will make a first class surveyor, in all respects.

CODE CHANGES

Conference Committee Frequently Reverses Itself—Changes Made For Political Effect—Governor to Have Appointing Power in Certain Cities.

Columbus, O., Oct. 17.—Yesterday afternoon the conference committee on the Nash code revised its action of Wednesday and receded from the proposition to permit the members of the Board of Public Safety to be appointed by the Sinking Fund Trustees in each city. Instead it was announced that it had been decided to confer this power upon the Mayors. The change ordered provides that the Mayor shall appoint the members of the Board of Public Safety in each city after the Council has fixed the number. These appointments shall then be submitted to Council and a two-thirds vote shall be necessary to confirm. The provision reads: "In the event of the failure of Council to confirm within 30 days it shall be the duty of the Governor to make said appointments."

This was the amendment that was offered last Tuesday night, and rejected by the committee because, as stated at the time, it meant that scarcely a Mayor of either party in the state can absolutely name the members of the Board of Public Safety in his city, for reason that there are few cities, if any, in the state in which either party has a two-thirds majority in Council.

Senator Harding, of Marion, (Republican) said: "I believe in being truthful, and it is no use trying to deceive any intelligent person about this amendment. It was placed in there to meet special conditions, and is purely political in its character. Anyone with common sense can see how it will apply. It is intended to give the Governor the appointing power in certain cities and that is all there is to it."

United States Senator Hanna yesterday told Senator Patterson of the Conference Committee, and Chairman Dick that he was opposed to the appointment of the Board of Public Safety through the medium of the Mayor. All through the day there were conferences and whisperings.

About 5 o'clock there was a conference in one of the offices of State Auditor Guilbert. The papers of the committee were carried into this room. Assistant Corporation Counsel Wade H. Ellis of Cincinnati, was of hand. An hour later Senator Harding, Longworth, Harris and Archer, and two Representatives, Denman and Gaerin, a bare majority of the committee, went to the committee room. Some moments later the doors were opened and the announcement was made. It came as a complete surprise to many members.

Unique and Somewhat Romantic Nuptial Contract—Ohio Girl Starts For the West.

Clyde, O., Oct. 17.—The peculiar nuptial contract between Mrs. Maud Cook of Clyde, and Henry Clays, of Mountain Home, Idaho, is unique and somewhat romantic. Miss Cook took passage for the far west yesterday to meet her betrothed, reserving the right to refuse to wed him if she was disappointed in him after meeting him. The groom-to-be acceded to the condition and gallantly proposed in his letter to pay all her expenses back to Ohio if she decided he was not a "winner."

Five years ago Miss Cook and Young Clays were school mates at Green Springs, Ohio, just south of Clyde. Clays went west and is reported to be a successful gold miner. Miss Cook's home life was shattered by the tragic death of her father, Henry Cook, who was shot by a man named Trout, who is now doing time in the Ohio penitentiary.

Miss Cook has been a member of the family of George Tiffany, cashier of the First National bank here. The correspondence between the young couple resulted in a conditional acceptance on the part of Miss Cook as stated above. Miss Cook left Ohio amid the well wishes of many friends who accompanied her to the train.

NATIONAL CONVENTION OPENS AT PORTLAND, ME.

Some Interesting Statistics Were Presented by the Secretary, Mrs. Fry This Morning.

Portland, Me., Oct. 17.—Reports occupied the opening session this morning of the national convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. Fry, the secretary, occupied some time in a history of the missionary work done by the organizers of the union in foreign lands. She put particular stress on the work done during the year in the Philippines, Cuba, Japan and the Bermudas.

Turning to the growth of the organization for the year:

Total number of unions organized among the older women 120; total number of young women's union 40; reorganized unions 54; new members secured in both branches 4,702; number of new local temperance leagues organized 60; number of members secured to the leagues 2,291; and number of total abstinence pledges secured 4,328.

The report of Mrs. Helen Morton Barber, national treasurer, showed the organization to be in a prosperous condition. The contributions to the Francis Willard memorial fund, she reported had been greater this year than at any time since the fund was started. This year there were $4,417.62 contributed. Every state in the union had contributed, she continued, even Hawaii, Barama, Spain and South Africa having sent their mites in honor of this memorial to our great leader.

FULL TEXT

Of the Platform Adopted at the Democratic State Convention.

In state convention assembled, we, the Democrats of Ohio, hereby acknowledge and declare our continued allegiance to the Democratic party of the nation and on national issues reaffirm and endorse the principles laid down in its last national platform adopted at Kansas City, and which was fully and amply represented in the presidential campaign of 1896 by William Jennings Bryan. Regarding those principles as opposed to imperialism and colonialism, as opposed to government by injunction, as opposed to trusts and trust-fostering tariffs, as opposed to financial monopoly and as opposed to all other legalized monopolies and privileges, we condemn every effort to repudiate or ignore them.

In state and municipal affairs we pledge our party to a faithful application of those Democratic principles, to the end that the burdens of taxation may be equalized and home rule and local self-government be established and preserved.

REPUBLICANS ARRAIGNED.

Under the long continued control of the Republican party in this state monopoly has been fostered and protected; the farmer and the small home owners have been burdened with excessive taxes that the beneficiaries and favorites of that party might be permitted to escape their just share of the public burdens; our public institutions have been waste fully and inefficiently managed and in them scandals and cruel wrongs have been practiced upon the defenseless wards of the state; the farmers and small shippers continue to suffer from unjust discrimination at the hands of unregulated monopoly; the fine system of municipal government has been wrecked and the credit of cities destroyed, thereby producing a spirit of insecurity and unrest in all public affairs. The people can no longer trust the administration of their affairs to a party thus recklessly devoted to interests adverse to the public welfare. As a more specific statement of our principles upon these and other public questions we declare:

1. That all taxpaying property should be appraised by assessing boards which should be in session for at least a part of each year and whose proceedings and deliberations should be open to the public; that power be given to employ a representative to present the interests of the public in making assessments all property should be appraised at not less than its saleable value.

2. That the present laws for assessing the property of steam rail roads and other public service corporations should be so changed as to compel the assessment of those properties at not less than their saleable value as going concerns and to prevent their evasion of just taxation.

CLASSIFICATION.

3. That to prevent evasion of state taxes by discriminating valuations, separation of the source of state and local revenues should be made. Any to that end, we heartily endorse the constitutional amendment now pending before the people and to be voted on next year, which will permit classification of taxable property.

4. That all public service corporations should be required by law to make sworn public reports and that the power of visitation and examination over such corporations should be given to the proper auditing officers to the end that the true value of the properties had by such corporations may be made plain to the people.

FREE PASSES.

5. That the acceptance of free passes or other favors from railroad or public officers or employees should be adequate ground for their removal from office.

6. That the denial of the right of

MUNICIPAL CODE.

7. That we demand the enactment of a code which provides absolute home rule for municipalities which shall include the right to establish the merit system with civil service under which that system, as now in use in fire and police departments may be strengthened and perfected and be extended to other municipal departments particularly to water and lighting plants now operated by municipalities and to street car and all public service plants that may hereafter be established under municipal ownership and operation.

HANNA, COX AND FORAKER.

8. That we condemn the vicious and corrupt bargain between the boss of Cincinnati and Ohio's United States Senators to force through the legislature a code that will foist upon the municipalities of Ohio Cincinnati's form of government in order that the power of its boss may be preserved on one hand and on the other hand will perpetuate existing street railway franchises which Ohio's United States Senators represent.

9. That the municipal code should protect the public against all clauses which may be clandestinely placed therein in the special interest of public service monopolies by requiring that all ordinances granting, renewing, extending or modifying franchises shall be inoperative until confirmed by a majority vote of the people of the municipality, and we are unalterably opposed to the granting of any perpetual franchises.

SENATORIAL NOMINATIONS.

10. That until United States senators are required by amendment to the federal constitution to be elected by popular vote nominations of candidates for United States senator should be made by state conventions. And we hereby direct that in the official call for the next Democratic state convention of Ohio there be embodied a clause providing for the nomination at that convention of Democratic candidates for United States senator and a clause providing for action by said convention, upon all amendments to the state constitution then pending before the people.

Upon these principles of home rule, and just taxation, and to the accomplishment of these purposes in municipal and state affairs, we invite the co-operation of all citizens of Ohio regardless of their party affiliations in pledging our candidates to the faithful observance of this declaration both in letter and spirit.

Cod Liver Oil and What It Does

The Remedy
Freed from Grossness

Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil (with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda) is based on the learning of famous medical men. They discovered that the grease in cod liver oil is only a temporary preservative of its invaluable restorative and reconstructive properties—not necessary to the cure.

Remedial Agents
Retained

By a scientific method devised from this knowledge, known and practiced exclusively in our laboratory, the grease is extracted from cod liver oil leaving only the remedial elements, to which is added a cordial pleasant to taste and smell, making Hagee's Cordial acceptable to the most delicate stomach.

Revitalizer
Reconstructive
Restorative

By its revitalizing, reconstructive, corrective principles it cures la grippe, coughs, colds, weak lungs, bronchitis, consumption, catarrhal conditions, nervousness, sleeplessness, indigestion, dyspepsia, mal-assimilation, rheumatism, skin diseases, pimples, blotches, weakened condition following fevers, impoverishment of the blood, and creates more and better flesh. The cure begins with the first doses—quick relief—and permanent results are realized day by day—prevents further disorder by maintaining perfect condition.

DESPERATE MEASURES

To Lighten the Vessel That Stranded on Reef Near Cuban Coast—Men Tortured Brutes To Leap Overboard.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 17.—Three hundred head of cattle killed in an effort to lighten a ship ashore, 200 left to die on a coral reef level with the sea 150 miles off shore and 1,000 left to perish in the hold of the abandoned steamer Fri is the rare tale of the sea told by Charles Lursen, a ship wrecked mariner, who arrived in port on the steamer Hippolyte Dmo.s from Port Antonio.

The Fri, a Norwegian steamer of 1,376 gross tons and a length of 232 feet, in charge of Captain Ellingers, sailed out of Carthegena, Central America, September 22, with 1,500 head of cattle for Cienfuegos, Cuba, where the animals were to be slaughtered for food. They accepted the three decks in the hold and the upper deck.

On the morning of September 26 the ship brought up suddenly with a crunching sound on a coral reef 150 miles at sea, off the Cuban coast. That day the Captain and three men started out in a small row boat equipped with a sail, in an effort to reach the shore, 150 miles distant, when a storm came up and drove them back to the ship for shelter.

On the second day that the Fri had been on the reef it was decided to cast the live stock into the sea with the hope that the loss of weight would permit the ship to float. All those on the forward part of the upper deck were led to the gangway and goaled with sticks and clubs until they were compelled to jump or fall 20 feet and strike the sea with a splash. If a steer was stubborn the men twisted his tail, shouted the louder and poked him the harder and he jumped or fell over the ship's side. This work was kept up for hours, all hands, numbering 22 men, being at work hurrying cattle into the sea. They swam round and round the ship in a manner that suggested that they were appealing for help. They had been given all they could eat before they went overboard, but they had been without drinking water for 48 hours, it all having been pumped overboard in an effort to lighten the vessel.

The 20v cattle forced into the sea discovered one after another that their hoofs touched the coral reef upon which the ship rested and they climbed on this to keep from drowning. At one time all the 20v stood on the coral in water that came up to their stomachs. The cold stiffened their legs and every now and then one would fall over and drown. As the seas swept through them their bodies were

The cattle in the hold had to come up through the hatchways, there being no cargo ports through which they could be led overboard. This necessitated resorting to harsh measures as the ship had to be floated quickly, if at all.

In order to get the cattle out a hawser attached to a steam winch and a cargo derrick was lowered into the forward hold and the hawser placed about a steer's neck. He was jerked out of the hold by steam and as he came up through the hatchway a man stood by with an ax to knock the beast senseless before the boom swung over the ship's rail and let its burden drop into the ocean. This work, too, went on for four hours, and when one man became tired of the killing another one took his place. In this manner 300 head of cattle were killed and as many carcasses floated away to dot the sea to leeward. It was then decided that the ship could not be floated in this manner. One thousand cattle were still in the hold. They were to be left to their fate—to die of thirst hunger and the ill ventilation of the stuffy hold. It was decided that all hands were to leave the ship in the small boats and make a try to reach the coast, 150 miles away. The 1000 cattle were given one last full meal, but there was no water for them.

Three boats were lowered, and into these went the 22 men, biscuits, casks of water, nautical instruments and sails and oars. When they left the side of the Fri the greater part of the 200 cattle on the reef were solidly standing up to their stomachs in an expanse of sea unbroken save by the Fri to be a gigantic steel coffin of the 1000 sufferers that had not even a porthole to let in the light or air.

For three days and three nights the three boats sailed or rowed toward the island of Jamaica, good weather favoring them, and on the third day they landed at Black River, Jamaica. The cattle had been without water for six days and without food four days when two wrecking tugs left Cuba to lend assistance to the stranded ship. It is not believed that a single steer was left alive. The Fri was floated five days ago and has been towed in to Kingston, Jamaica, a fact not known to the survivors until they arrived here yesterday. They agreed in the statement that not a member of the Fri's crew expected that a steer would be found alive.

A GOOD DEAL OF NONSENSE

About "Blood Purifiers" and "Tonics." Every drop of blood, every bone, nerve and tissue in the body can be renewed in but one way, and that is, from wholesome food properly digested. There is no other way and the idea that a medicine in itself can purify the blood or supply new tissues and strong nerves is ridiculous and on a par with the fol-de-rol that dyspepsia or indigestion is a germ disease or that other fallacy, that a weak stomach which refuses to digest food can be made to do so by irritating and inflaming the bowels by pills and cathartics.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure indigestion, sour stomach, gas and bloating after meals, because they furnish the digestive principles which weak stomachs lack, and unless the deficiency of pepsin and diastase is supplied it is useless to attempt to cure stomach trouble by the use of "tonics," "pills" and "cathartics," which have absolutely no digestive power, and their only effect is to give a temporary stimulation.

One grain of the active principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 2,000 grains of meat, eggs and similar foods, and experiments have shown that they will do this in a glass bottle at proper temperature, but of course are much more effective in the stomach.

There is probably no remedy so universally used as Stuart's Tablets because it is not only the sick and ailing, but well people who use them at every meal to insure perfect digestion and assimilation of the food.

People who enjoy fair health take Stuart's Tablets as regularly as they take their meals, because they want to keep well, prevention is better than cure, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do both; they prevent indigestion and they remove it where it exists. The regular use of one or two of them after meals will demonstrate their merit and efficiency better than any argument.

It's a mistake to imagine that "pills" are a "quick cure" to "cure" a "day longer" than you can help. Stuart's Tablets, however, instantly relieve and permanently cure at any drug store, 50 cents.

AN OLD FAVORITE

ON HIS BLINDNESS

By John Milton

JOHN MILTON (born in London Dec. 9, 1572, died there Nov. 8, 1674) is one of the great names in the world's literature and ranks second only to Shakespeare as a English poet. Milton's fame rests chiefly upon his epic "Paradise Lost," an epic poem of man's first disobedience. The poet was totally blind in May, 1652. "On His Blindness" is one of his known of Milton's short poems. "For," in the eighth line is to be read in a "old sense of 'tooth'." "That one's out which is death to hide" is supposed to mean the taste for writing.

WHEN I consider how my light is spent
Ere half my days in this dark world and wide
And that one talent which is death to hide
Lodged with me useless, though my soul more bent
To serve therewith my Maker, and present
My true account, lest he returning chide:
"Doth God exact day-labor, light denied?"
I fondly ask. But Patience, to prevent
That murmur, soon replies, "God doth not need
Either man's work or his own gifts. Who best
Bear his mild yoke, they serve him best. His state
Is Kingly: thousands at his bidding speed,
And post o'er land and ocean without rest;
They also serve who only stand and wait."

Woman Heir to Millions—Treasury May Disgorge Fortune to Railroad's Wife.

Columbus, O., Oct. 17.—Mrs. James H. Fletcher, of 87 West Second avenue, whose husband is a conductor on the Pan Handle, is the heir to a fortune lying in the United States treasury and has been asked to prove her legal heirship. Mrs. Fletcher says she and her brothers, who reside in Dayton are the grandchildren of the late Benjamin Touchstone and the great grandchildren of John Hamilton. In 1774, 8,000 barrels of flour, belonging to the latter, were shipped to Europe upon a vessel belonging to Ambrose Vasse, an American.

The vessel was captured by the French and the cargo entirely destroyed. At that time flour was worth $23 per barrel. Benjamin Touchstone was interested and made a claim on France through the United States government. John Hamilton died at Winchester, Va., in 1825, and Benjamin Touchstone came west and died in Clark county, Ohio, in 1852. In 1831 the French government is said to have allowed the claim, with interest, and the sum, according to the statements, was paid into the United States treasury, where it still remains, and is accumulating interest.

There is also a land claim of 5,000 acres which belonged to John Hamilton and which was leased to the government under the 100 year lease plan, and this lease is about to expire. These lands are located in Virginia and Tennessee and will revert back to the original owner or his heirs.

The value of the claims, together with interest, is now more than $2,000,000.

NO MORE SMALLPOX.

Alexandria, Oct. 17.—Smallpox quarantines have been raised from the families of T. H. Perry and Richard Proctor. Robert Buxton was released from his private home. Now we are free from smallpox, not a case in the village of Alexandria. People are finding out the straight of matters and are coming back. We certainly welcome them. Churches opened last Sunday, school opened Monday, and Alexandria is no more to be scorned at or sent from the outer world.

PRIZE

Was the Love of a Girl and the Two Men Fought Desperately for Her. Result a Draw.

Circleville, O., October 17.—In the woods near the hamlet of Five Points Ben Long and Fred Reeve, of Perry township, fought 36 rounds to a draw and both were only stopped by sheer exhaustion. Both men loved the same girl, and the rivalry was the motive of the fight.

The original plan was to fight a duel to the death with pistols, but friends interceded and a compromise was effected by which they agreed to fight with corn cutters. Armed with these they took up the march from the village, followed by about 100 spectators. They proceeded without interruption to the Thomas woods. The friends of the principals would not permit the fight with corn cutters to take place, but did not oppose a fight with bare knuckles. Long was seconded by Jim Wheeler, and Reeve by Chris Anderson. The fighters stripped to the waist and hammered each other two hours. Both fought savagely and landed terrific blows until they were completely exhausted.

The prize was the affections of Miss Sadie Brown, one of the village belles, to whom both have been very attentive and much attached. They have been rivals since the beginning of camp meeting last June. They are both as full of determination as ever and say the end is not yet.

of unusual interest. The style of the case is Andrew Britch vs. Leander Hay, and is an action brought for 50 cents, claimed due on account of labor. The case was tried by the Squire before a jury and they disagreed. The defendant paid the jury and the case came up again for trial before the Squire, and the defendant failing to appear, judgment was rendered the plaintiff for 50 cents. Now he carries the case to the Common Pleas Court. The costs in the case already amount to $28.85. The plaintiff says he will carry it to the Supreme Court if necessary.

SUIT

BOUGHT AGAIN. BALTIMORE & OHIO RAILROAD.

Company's Right to Maintain an Insurance Business is Questioned. History of the Case.

The quo warranto suit filed at Napoleon, Ohio, against the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, questioning its right to maintain the insurance business it is at present carrying on, which has previously been mentioned in the Advocate, promises to be one of the most important and complicated that has ever come up in Ohio courts. The case will be heard in circuit court at Napoleon, the 15th of November. The points of the case that have been unveiled show a startling state of affairs and it correct it will undoubtedly be a serious blow to many of the leading railroads of this country.

In addition to its insurance business the company is said by the petition to be carrying on a banking and trust business and has charters for neither. It is claimed that the B. & O. people are at present using to their profit over $2,000,000 obtained by insurance premiums paid in by their employees. To quote from the petition filed in circuit court by Prosecutor H. R. Dittmer, "Said company wrongfully exercises the franchise of collecting and holding said insurance fund for a profit to itself thereby exercising the franchise of a banking and trust business. Said defendant company and its associate companies are wrongfully exercising the right and franchise to confiscate and forfeit all the collected and acquired benefits, rights and equities in and to said funds so collected from said employees for said company's benefit and profit."

It is said that "the sum thus handled by the railroad represents an appreciable amount of its ready capital, and its loss will be a serious blow. Other and as serious allegations are also made in the petition, to the effect that the road is exercising a despotic authority over its men in direct opposition to the rights given a citizen under the constitution, even going so far as to deny its workmen the use of the courts against them, so managing its affairs that its employees are literally bound hand and foot, surrendering a goodly portion of the salary paid them by the company, to be used to the profit of the road, the great corporation. It is claimed, is exercising a more than czar-like control over them."

The petition makes serious charges in these directions: "Said company is wrongfully exercising the franchises that are delegated to the courts of the state by taking away the rights and privileges of its employees to apply to said courts; that it is wrongfully imposing a penalty and a forfeiture against said employee for using the courts of the state to protect him against said company, by confiscating all of said accumulation in insurance fund collected from his wages in the event that said employee or representative invokes the jurisdiction of any of the courts of said state; said company wrongfully exercises the franchise and rights of the court by passing judgment on all questions between said company and employees in connection with said insurance department and said trust fund; said company wrongfully exercises the franchise of delegating to its superintendent full power and final jurisdiction over said controversies; said company is wrongfully exercising the franchise and right of a trial by jury in all matters pertaining to claims against said insurance fund; that it is wrongfully exercising the franchise of the probate court of said state in imposing penalties, restrictions and forfeitures upon personal representatives of said employees in contest against said fund."

Over a dozen subsidiary roads are also involved in the suit. Among these are the Pittsburgh & Western railroad, the Akron & Chicago Junction road, the Cleveland Terminal and Valley road, the B. & O. S. W., the B. & O. & Chicago, the Central Ohio, the Cleveland, Wooster & Muskingum, the Columbus, Cincinnati & Midland, the Newark, Somerset & Stralville, the Eastern Ohio, the Pittsburg, Cleveland & Toledo, and the Pittsburg, Painesville & Fairport roads.

The object of the suit is to have the court appoint trustees who will settle the business of the relief department of the road, and return the two million dollar fund collected in this manner to the policy holders.

Of Miss Williams to the Man Who Saved Her From Drowning Last Christmas.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 17.—It is announced that Miss Minnie Williams, a prominent young woman of St. Louis, and Herbert L. Hamlin of this city will be married October 22 at St. Louis. The marriage is the culmination of a romantic incident which occurred here last Christmas, when the steamer Sun burned to the water's edge in this port. Miss Williams was a passenger, and leaping into the river was battling unsuccessfully with the current when she was rescued by the prospective bridegroom.

BOER

Generals Receive an Ovation in Berlin Where They Were Welcomed by Lueckhoff.

Berlin, Oct. 17.—The Boer generals arrived at the Tiergarten station here from Paris and were welcomed by Herr Lueckhoff, president of the reception committee. They were driven to the hotel of the Four Seasons where they were received with great enthusiasm. Herr Trojan, editor of Kladderadatsch greeted them by reading a sonnet. In his reply to the editor General Botha emphasized the non-political character of the mission of the Boers, the only purpose of which he said was to alleviate the unspeakable misery of their people. The generals responded to the calls of the immense crowds in front of the hotel by appearing on the balcony and addressing the people. General Dewet said the Boers had been defeated in war and submitted to their fate. Crowds lingered in front of the hotel until after 10 o'clock at night. An unusually strong detail of police remained in the adjacent streets in readiness to suppress any political demonstration.

The visitors received an ovation from very large crowds of people along the route from the railroad station to their hotel.

TO JAIL

She Preferred to go Rather Than Part With the Pets That Consolated Her at Home.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 17.—Rather than do away with her pet dogs the aged Mrs. Mary Heinkel is enduring incarceration in the workhouse.

"Kill your pets or go to the workhouse," was the edict from the police court, and she chose the city's penal institution.

"I will die before I give up my dogs," was her reply, and the frail woman, with her burden of years, sits near her cat in the woman's ward asking all who appear if her pets have been fed.

The accused led a life secluded and austere. With nothing but dogs to amuse her and take up her time and feeble energies her lot was a lonely one. She incurred the enmity of neighbors because of the canine family she harbored, and on their complaint she was arrested and charged with peace disturbance. A fine of $100 was imposed, but the Judge agreed to remit it on condition that she put the alleged animal nuisance to death.

This she refused to do, and her imprisonment followed. It will take her nearly two months to work out the fine.

When the census was taken in New South Wales among the ages returned were five or 100 years, six of 101, three of 104, one of 107 and another of 113 years.

VALIDITY

OF TEXAS LAND GRANT IS ATTACKED.

Grant Made Before the Mexican War. Many Other Similar Cases May Follow.

Houston, Texas, Oct. 17.—Suit was filed in the Federal Court of the Southern Texas District yesterday by an attorney for William H. Williams, of Cincinnati, as the direct descendant and heir of Samuel M. Williams, for the possession of all that portion of Anderson and Freestone counties, in this state, not permanently held by residents of more than five years. Land amounting to 50,000 acres, and valued at more than $1,000,000, is involved. The property is now held by Vicente Gorastiza and other heirs of Juan I. Aquillera, who was a patriot of Mexico before the time of Santa Anna.

The story goes back to the days when Texas was a colony of Mexico. In order to induce emigration to Texas the Mexican government made immense grants of land to the distinguished patriots of that republic by which American impresarios, as they were termed, were given complete control over the territory as agents with power of attorney for the real beneficiaries. Among those who took advantage of this opportunity was Samuel M. Williams. In company with Steven F. Austin and other Texas heroes he was influential in bringing to this country hundreds of citizens of the Northern States who later fought for the independence of Texas. Samuel M. Williams was the grandfather of Williams, plaintiff in the litigation just begun.

The validity of the grant was never questioned until now, and the heirs of the original grantee have been reaping rich rewards from the holdings for the past 30 years. Yesterday Vincente Gorastiza is one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in Mexico, residing in the capital of that country.

Recently the Supreme Court of Texas handed down a decision in a case in which the title to land under old Mexican grants was seriously attacked and favoring claims put forward by heirs of the impresarios. On the strength of this decision the case is brought.

Prominent attorneys, who have examined the decision closely are unanimously of the opinion that the action is well taken, but owing to the fact that such a large amount of property is involved and that the validity of all such grants are attacked, the case will be fought to a finish. If Williams is successful hundreds of other descendants of old Texas families will institute similar proceedings. Hundreds of thousands of acres worth millions of dollars are involved, together with thousands of property owners over the state.

THE ECLIPSE

Viewed by Hundreds of Newark People Thursday Night—Clouds Obstructed View.

The total eclipse of the moon on Thursday night came on schedule time and of course was witnessed by hundreds of Newark people. The moon came into the shadow about 10:30 and the eclipse was total at 11:25.

The conditions for viewing it from 11 o'clock on through the period of totality were ideal, but before this time there were cloud flecks which made it appear hazy.

The High school astronomy class under Professor E. P. Childs viewed the phenomenon through the telescope, and many people trained powerful field glasses upon the eclipse, but it could be seen nearly as well with the naked eye, and the lenses did no more than make the moon appear closer.

As far as is known the event had little astronomical or scientific interest.

COME FROM O. S. U. SATURDAY TO LICKING COUNTY.

Scientific Investigation Will be Conducted by Geology Class of the University.

Columbus, O., Oct. 17.—The geology class of the O. S. U. under direction of Professor John A. Bownocker, will make a scientific expedition into the wilds of Licking county Saturday.

They will take the morning train at Hanover. Handle train due to leave Union station at 9:10 a. m. and will leave the train at Hanover.

At Newark the class will be joined by the geology class of Denison university, in Granville, composed of a dozen students.

Professor Bownocker's class is composed of ten young ladies and six young gentlemen.

The expedition will cover the territory in the historic gorge west of Hanover, at Black Hand. The return trip will be made on the evening floor. The geographical features of that section of Ohio, the richest field in the central part of the United States, for scientific discovery, are being made a special topic for the class this week. A map of the territory is being made by each pupil of the class and the preliminary drill of the trip being made here.

At the close of the trip each pupil will be required to write a history of the day's work bringing out the important geological points.

SIXTY FEET

Orange Dunlap Fell at Utica and He is Living to Tell the Story of His Escape.

Orange Dunlap of this city, is the only man in Richland county to our knowledge who has ever succeeded in falling 63 feet from a church steeple and still lives.

This daring feat was not performed willingly, however, as Mr. Dunlap was engaged in painting the steeple of the Covenant church at Utica in 1891. He grasped a defective timber in the scaffold and the stick being green and having been split when nailed up, gave way and hurled him to the earth 63 feet below. As he descended head first he thought he ought to make some effort to strike the ground feet first. Making a desperate effort he turned and when he came in contact with the earth a moment later struck feet first. That is all that saved his life. His ankle was broken and he was otherwise injured so that he was unable to work from June 7 to Nov. 12. He has never fully recovered from the effect of the fall.—Shelby Globe.

Exciting Runaway.

An exciting runaway occurred on Fourth street on Thursday evening. A boy was driving a horse belonging to Frank Swartz, that was hitched to a wagon loaded with lumber, when a plank worked forward against the horse's leg causing him to run away. The animal ran south on Fourth street and when near the laundry struck an obstruction, throwing the boy out of the wagon, and badly bruising him. The horse continued down Fourth street to West Main, running east on that street to the Court House Park, where he was stopped.
